I would like to refer a friend I know who has expressed that they may be interested in making at least one real property investment in the next 12 months. I have personally contacted my referral and they have personally expressed this interest in purchasing real property within the next year to me, and they are planning to do so if they could find some really good investment property. They have stated that they are interested in having Good Price Homes, LLC contact them.

Here is my friend's contact information:

I understand that under the $1000 Buyer Referral Program, I will receive $100 for every property (up to a maximum of 10 properties) that my referred prospective Buyer purchases from Good Price Homes LLC. This means that if my prospective Buyer purchases 10 properties from Good Price Homes LLC, I would receive up to a total cumulative amount of $1000.

I understand and agree that before I receive the $100 award for a successful referral of an actual Buyer, that I must show and display my state-issued I.D. in person.
